

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1850.

RIVER AND WEATHER.

The river is running high down, and at a very rapid rate. There were only four feet four inches water in the canal last evening, and about one-half foot in the river. The water has come down, drawing five and a half feet, and was considered to be quite sufficient.

Our Daily for the Country. We furnish to the country, in all directions, the facilities of a daily mail can reach the Democrat at five dollars per year, payable in advance.

The Evening Democrat.

We shall have the evening edition of the Democrat to-day, giving the telegraphic news up to noon, together with all the latest items of mail, and all local intelligence up to the moment of going to press.

We intend to make it as thorough as our morning issue, and as prompt to furnish every item of interest to the busy world.

Geo. A. Crofts, successor to Lay & Broth, General Advertising Agent, office 73 South Street, above Walnut, Philadelphia, is an exciting agent for the Democrat.

Should any carrier fail to deliver the Democrat promptly, word left at the office will rapidly be repeated.

Our Daily is a fund of interesting matter, our out-looks. The Late Phase of Fanaticism—Legion or Moral Matters—Surprise Party—The Degraded Cities—A Speech—An Elephant's Annual Fasting and Abortion—Punch's Prodigy—The Mighty Chunk of Gold—Nothing—Emblematic Colors—Democrats, and a host of interesting items.

Louisville is now without a single public comment.

The two Mayors of Louisville proceeded to meet together with their respective counsels for the final guess as to what's what.

The Floating Palace is slowly winding its down river. Get your lines ready, boys; events will be soon here.

We return thanks to the American Express Company for a copy of the Cincinnati Commercial, and for the mail.

These 50,000 American muskets which so mysteriously went into a Russian port, are to be a part of the celebrated Grapeshot's.

Dr. Stephen Beale, the Philadelphia dentist is said to be lying seriously ill at the county in Philadelphia, and it is feared that he will succumb to his illness.

Any person desiring to rent a really splendid residence, situated in an excellent part of the city, will consult our interest by calling on Mr. Pettis, Jefferson street, below Second.

The streets yesterday were quite lively for the day, although business does not appear to have revived much. Inn-keepers are in business in every avenue and on every square.

Mr. McLEOD'S FUNERAL. Captain McLeod's funeral yesterday afternoon was very elegantly attended, especially by the river men in city and in port. He was buried with Masonic rites.

The Weekly Democrat is issued this morning, and may be procured at the desk with or without envelopes. Price five cents per copy, subscription per year $2 50, payable always in advance.

Charles Quirey, sheriff of Jefferson county, died last night at 11 o'clock. He had been ill for four or five months, during which time he suffered greatly. He was a good officer and citizen, and his loss will be keenly felt. Peace to his ashes.

NOTABLES.—There's a woman so drunk as to fall upon the ground too helpless to move. God may smite upon the little ones, when the mother makes them for liquor, feels her youngest with a fainted poison.

FOOT RACE.—A fleet foot-race was run by Dick Dugan and Baney, near the Flat Lick road, two miles out on Monday. Dugan the winner, distance 50 yards, time 6 seconds. Some persons won money, and some didn't.

HORN STREET.—This street promises to be one of the best and most pleasant in the city. The boulders are progressing finely, one square being finished, so far as we can judge from appearance, the work well done and will prove serviceable.

THE MARKETS.—We are pleased to notice that our markets are rapidly filling up with the best the country around us will afford. We walked through "country market space" yesterday afternoon, and found an abundance as very fair prices.

Mrs. GEARSTAN.—This excellent actress and estimable woman came down yesterday on the Jacob Strand and left on the Highwater for St. Louis, where she has an engagement. We commend her to the kind attention of our contemporaries in the Mound City.

An Englishman has been arrested at New York who stands accused of having obtained by the aid of friends, representations, fourteen thousand dollars' worth of cottons from Garrett W. Dickinson, Esq., and immediately shipped them to Europe by packet, consigned to himself.

The four mile race over the Baltimore cause, last Thursday, was won by Lawson, beating Joe-Eyed Joe in two straight heats. Time, 7:47-1/2. Both of them are Virginia horses. The Tennessee mare, Caledonia, Read, was entered for the race, but withdrawn, in consequence of lameness.

Our patrons are beginning to appreciate the advantages of our paper. Its circulation is very general; in short, it goes everywhere in and out of Louisville where the facilities of a daily mail can reach, or railroad travel communicate.

Subscribers, ten cents per week, pay to the carrier. Mail subscribers, five dollars per year.

There is no want of minerals—no circumscription of wild animals—or tame ones—that can light down in the city and subside.

Send along something, and that quickly—an organ and a piano—two good orgels, or a clavichord—something or nothing—don't be afraid to let us know what the world is doing.

A SHORT NIGHT'S RAMBLE.

We strolled around our two squares last night, about the hour of ten. At the over all was quiet; and at a country village in the Sabbath coffee house, and where all closed. Across the dark river came the whistle of the locomotive as it steamed its way in, through wood and wild, to the great and populous city, while the subdued murmur of "Ta! Ta! Ta!" fell on the ear as something modest and placid.

WHAT WAS IT? We passed on down the river, and by the road a short while up the dark, but when the gas lamp at the corner cast a feeble and flickering ray upon his tent, there it was crowded up in the old stand a boy of ten or twelve years. A tender age, we thought, but not a happy life. He was asleep. Had he been in continual want, or living brother and sister, or comfortable room, and warm clothing? he must sleep that exposed to the night damp? We were on the point of asking him—then we thought better, out, out! he is homeless and friendless; we have no place to offer him, and if we have, perhaps in social rather than in material, form, still there wealth of services. What is he to do? As we are so much engaged in the welfare of "What is it?" this is all we can do for him.

THE BELIEVER was at New Orleans last night with a very good train.

The Trichon is a successful project of Memphis, and will bear the Portland wheat passing to the river.

THE TIGER is running well, and with a good train.

THE FALCON is the most popular flying train. She is now in the lead, and will make recorders comfortable.

WE look for the Baltimore to come to St. Louis, and the Louisville to be in good order.

PARIS.—We have been inquiring the last few days about the West, and are anxious to learn the condition of affairs. The Adams has not come, and we have not received any news from the river. The New Orleans has not come, and we have not received any news from the river.

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

That Mighty Chuck of Gold.

The bump of a 1000 dollar purse of 100 pounds, which cost something over $250, has been exhibited in Boston, where it has the following "points":

A LIBRARY TO THAT JESUS

That great awfully edited, bugger in the bowels of the earth, which they say is the Devil.

A library to that Devil.

After the lecture, great was the excitement of hell. There was a general, Before all, to be sent for drinks.

At the end of the Moral-Poly-Tun, the audience, like a host of 6000, Then right into the Devil.

He took as much as he could.

He was the Devil of a Devil.

He spoke like a Devil in a Devil.

There was a Devil in the Devil.
